

NUTLEY FARM

THE HOME OF THE CASTERBRIDGE CARRIAGE COMPANY

Cherry Barn

Situated on the Nutley Farm smallholding, near Winfrith Newburgh, Dorset, beautiful Cherry Barn is dog friendly and has a four star rating awarded by Visit Britain Self Catering Quality in Tourism. Close to the spectacular World Heritage Coastline and its famous Lulworth Cove and Durdle Door and just seven miles from the county town of Dorchester, Cherry Barn offers a home from home for a fantastic Dorset break

Open all year and converted from a country barn in 2004, these cottages are bright and breezy in summer and warm and welcoming in winter and refurbished to a high standard. Cherry has a spacious double aspect bedroom with stunning countryside views containing a double, single and pull out bed. The open-plan sitting room is well furnished with two comfy sofas, a TV/ DVD player and dining table, also with countryside views. The modern well equipped kitchen has an oven, hob, microwave, and larder fridge. There are countryside views from the kitchen and sitting room. There's also a large bathroom with a large corner bath and power shower. Cherry Barn has exposed beams and under-floor heating throughout. There is private parking for two cars and the cottage has a garden with chairs, table and a BBQ. A washing machine and tumble dryer are in a separate boiler room. A washing line is available for guests' use.

Well behaved dogs are very welcome at Cherry Barn and owners and dogs alike will enjoy the fantastic walking on the nearby heath and the woodland adjoining the river ford at nearby Moreton village where T.E. Lawrence is buried.

All guests are welcomed with fresh eggs from the Nutley chickens and can enjoy a free horse and carriage ride in the adjoining Dorset countryside, courtesy of our majestic Friesian horses, Ipon and Czar.

Mick and Anna from Staffs – Cherry Barn really has been home for the week, we've thoroughly enjoyed the coasts, the tourist attractions and the hospitality. Lulworth Cove, Durdle Door, Man of War and Kimmeridge have been our favourite spots. Many thanks for a great stay, we think you've got a wonderful spot in a really beautiful part of the Country. We will be telling our friends.
